Numb. 6668.

The Daily Courant.

Friday, March 29. 1723.

London, March 29.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France.

Lisbon, February 25.

ON the 19th Instant, the Procession of the Inquisition Tribunal was performed here with the accustomed Ceremonies, and the King saw it pass by from his Palace Windows. On the 21st, the Infanta Donna Maria entred the 13th Day of her Small Pox, and not having since felt any thing of her Fever, the Court are under no Apprehensions for her Recovery. Advice is received, that M. Mezzabarba, Apostolical Vicar of China, who set out from hence by Land for Rome, is arrived at Ewas, and was met at some Distance from that City by the Bishop Don John de Souza de Castel Branco; that he was saluted at his Entrance by seven Guns, and proceeded to the Episcopal Palace thro' double Ranks of the Soldiery both Horse and Foot, under Arms, and with other Ceremonies usually observed at the Reception of Ambassadours; that he was visited the same Day by the Governour of the City, together with a great Number of General Officers and other Persons of Distinction, and set out the next Day for Badajos, a Frontier Town in Spain. Letters from Braga and Coimbra say, that the Virtuosi there have made a Discovery of several Antick Inscriptions and Basso-Relievos, likely to prove of extraordinary Use towards fixing the Epochas of the History of this Kingdom. On the 4th Instant the Assembly of the Royal Historical Academy was employed in reading the Dissertation of Joseph Contador de Argote, and of Joseph de Couto Cistena, and of several other Academicians appointed to attempt particular learned Discoveries.

Versailles, April 2. The 27th past, the King having on him the Grand Collar of the Order of the Holy Ghost, and accompanied by the Duke of Bourbon, went in Ceremony to the Parish Church, and received the Communion at the Hands of the Cardinal de Roban, Great Almoner of France: His Majesty being returned to the Castle, touched a great Number of sick Persons. Upon Easter-Day, the 28th, the King went to the Chapel at the Castle, attended by the Duke of Orleans, Duke of Chartres, and Count of Clermont, and heard Mass celebrated Pontifically by the Bishop of Frejus, and sung to Musick. The same Day the King caused the Blessed Bread to be offered at the Parish Church with the most Ceremonies, and to be presented by the Abbe de Brancas his Majesty's Chaplain in waiting and by one of his Majesty's Stewards.

Paris, April 3. The Count de Riviere, who went from hence to Madrid in February last, to take Possession of the Dignity of Grandee of Spain, and being near Bayonne on his Return to this Kingdom, the Queen Dowager of Spain sent her Major-Domo two Leagues from that City to meet him with her Coaches, and the next Morning her Majesty caused him to be brought to her Country House, where the Count was magnificently entertained, and all his Attendants. He was likewise saluted according to his Rank by the Artillery at his Entrance and Passage from all the Cities on his Way thro' Spain, and particularly by 16 Guns, as Grandee, at his arrival at Madrid the Beginning of last Month, had Audience of their Catholick Majesties the next Day, and kept open Table from the Time of his Arrival to the Day of his Departure. The Duke de Boufflers lost some Days ago at Billiards at Versailles 42800 Livres, against the Prince de [illegible] and other Noblemen. It is reported that the Duke and Dutchess de Reta are going to be parted from each other and live separately. The Arrest for delivering of Actions is at length at the Press, and they will accordingly be delivered indifferently to the Bearers of Certificates, conformably to the Arrêt of the 20th of December last. Orders are sent to Montpellier to proceed against the Fanaticks lately taken into Custody there; the Examination of one of their Preachers, called by them the Prophet Jacob, is to be printed, and contains the principal Points of their Religion. Letters from Bretagne give an Account, that two Nuns belonging to the Monastery of St. Paul de Leon, having agreed to poison the rest of the Sisterhood, they accordingly put Poyson into their Soup, by which most of them died the same Day, and the rest continue very sick. The guilty are apprehended, and Process is going to be formed against them.
